

Traditional Latin Mass at Maiden Lane

Sixteenth Century music from France and Flanders

The traditional Latin Mass is sung each Monday evening at Corpus Christi Church, Maiden Lane, London WC2E 2NB. From January to April 2024 the Latin Mass Society's Southwell Consort will perform a series of Franco-Flemish religious music from the sixteenth century. The traditional Mass provides the original liturgical context for which this music was composed.

The Latin Mass Society (LMS) exists to support the traditional Latin Mass and its associated patrimony. In 2021 it established the Southwell Consort as a polyphonic choir to accompany the traditional liturgy. The consort includes professional and amateur singers and sings fortnightly at Corpus Christi, Maiden Lane WC2E 2NB.
