Walking Pilgrimage

On the last weekend of August, the Society holds our Walking Pilgrimage to Walsingham, covering 57 miles of paths, tracks and roads, in the footsteps of countless pilgrims since before the Norman Conquest, for the Conversion of England.

We strive to match the sacrifices of the walking pilgrims with splendid liturgy, the best possible support on the road and proper evening meals cooked from scratch each day.

Day Pilgrimage on Sunday

On Sunday 27th August day pilgrims from across the country will travel to Walsingham for High Mass at the Catholic Shrine at 2.00 pm. This will be followed by a procession to the medieval Priory Ruins. A coach will depart from Westminster Cathedral at 9.00 am.

SUPPORT US

In the Middle Ages, those who could not go on a pilgrimage in person would often sponsor poor pilgrims, and in this way share in the graces received, asking the pilgrims to pray for their intentions.

In modern times, the generous response to our appeal in previous years has been invaluable; we have been able to offer generous discounts for children and students. We don't charge our chaplains, or seminarians and religious. Our volunteers, also, need to be supported.
