

APPENDIX 1

Birmingham:

S Chad, being the titular of the cathedral, would have been I Class in the diocese before the promulgation of the Motu Proprio Rubricarum Instructum. After this the titular of the cathedral ceased to be I Class in any church other than the cathedral itself and S Chad seems to have been reduced to II Class in the diocese, perhaps as a secondary patron. In 1964, though not 1962 or 1963, he was classed as a primary patron and hence would again become I Class. This is confirmed by relevant year books.

Since during the Christmas Octave, of diocesan feasts, only those of I Class and in honour of saints who are on those days inscribed in the universal calendar, even though only by a commemoration, are now to be admitted, the commemoration of S Egwin on 30th December is no longer made, the feast being transferred to 3rd January. (Gen. Rub. 68 f.) This is confirmed by relevant year books.

Hexham, Lancaster, Middlesbrough & Shrewsbury:

It seems most probable that in these dioceses, S Oswald would have been moved to 11th August in order to allow for the celebration of the Vigil of S Lawrence, but no absolute confirmation is currently available. In Liverpool, S Oswald was always kept on 11th August.
